Dressed to Close

"Fabulous by Friday" is the motto of Beth Ann Shepherd, owner of the home staging company Dressed to Close.

Specializing in glamming up homes for the real estate market and long-term rentals,

Shepherd can transform a dwelling into a decadent living space in 48 hours. "Everyone knows my homes because they have a look that's very contemporary and Hollywood chic," says Shepherd. In fact, home buyers love her work so much they often purchase the house and the appointments in it, which inspired Shepherd to create her own line of furnishings.
